

FTCh Watergreen Frazier
"Rusty"

2009 Irish Working Retriever of the Year
2009 Qualifier Irish Retriever Championship
Imported 2010
Weight – 58 lbs.

FTCh Watergreen Frazier, "Rusty," is a fox red Labrador of beautiful confirmation with speed, style, and gamefinding abilities to match. Rusty is the recipient of the 2009 Strokestown Perpetual Trophy, the prestigious award by the Irish Kennel Club for the best working retriever of the year (commonly known as the Irish Retriever of the Year). Rusty's splendid abilities afield and numerous competition recognitions are only complemented by his most compatible, biddable disposition... the perfect Gentleman's Gundog.

FTCh Fraizer was trained in the countryside of Cork along the Shannon River, Ireland's longest river. The area is the southernmost point of Ireland. There he remains well known for his brilliant manners and temperament on the hunt and "at the end of the day he could switch off and relax at fireside."

FTCh Watergreen Frazier's trial wins include:

Cork and District Canine Club 2009, Confirmation Show win
Cohh Field Trial Association – Duck and Pheasant Driven Trial
Clodagh Valley Field Trial Association – Snipe and Duck Trial
Clodagh Valley Field Trial Association – Driven Pheasant Trial
Irish Gundog and Show Society – Driven Pheasant Trial

Qualifier and Participant, 2009 Irish Kennel Club Championship Stake

(Note: To become an Irish Field Trial Champion, the Irish Kennel Club requires the dog to earn at least one show point in confirmation to assure adherence to breed standards. Rusty's show award is from Cork and District Canine Club in 2009).

Rusty has a splendid pedigree to back up his own attributes. Sire and dam are both Field Trial Champions. His dam was a 4-time qualifier for the Irish Championship. His grandsire... FTCh Pocklea Remus, winner of the 1991 British Championship and the sire with the most successful progeny for competition in British Kennel Club history.

Rusty's fantastic confirmation combined with his exceptional gamefinding abilities and splendid temperament to make him the epitome of a Wildrose Sporting Lifestyle Companion.
